The German book in Wolfenbüttel and abroad.
Studies presented to Ulrich Kopp in his retirement.
(Studies in Reading and Book Culture, vol. 1)

Tartu: University of Tartu Press, 2014
ISBN 978-9949-32-494-1. 344 pp., pb., with b+w and colour illustrations
List price: € 29
Direct link for ordering: http://www.tyk.ee/history-1/00000011448

Contents:
William A. Kelly, Foreword
Ulrich Kopp: curriculum vitae
Tabula gratulatoria
Abbreviations
Werner Arnold, Handschriften und Inkunabeln aus Süddeutschland in der Bibliotheca Augusta
Christoph und Gundula Boveland, Der Bär im Akanthus. Beobachtungen an einer Schlussvignette
Helmut Claus, Zum Buchdruck in Speyer in der Reformationszeit. Eine Fortsetzung
William A. Kelly, Sixteenth-century German imprints in Edinburgh libraries: a contribution to the further geographical coverage of VD16
Robert Kolb, The printer’s funeral sermon: recalling the contributions of the printer in the Wittenberg Reformation
Hans-Jörg Künast, Friedrich Endorfer d.Ä. und seine Augsburger Kalendersammlung (1595–1626)
Gisela Möncke, Rithmus Joannis Trapp. Eine Wiener Studentensatire in einem Nürnberger Druck von Hieronymus Höltzel
Cornelia Niekus Moore, “The wise woman” (c. 1525): an emblematic catalogue of virtues
David Paisey, A German student’s album in the British Library: Lauringen, Wittenberg and Tubingen, 1580–1588
Christoph Reske, Druckorte und Druckereien des 16. Jahrhunderts im deutschen Sprachgebiet
Anne Simon, The non-Catholic “Other” in Bernhard von Breidenbach’s Die heyligen reyssen gen Jherusalem
Contributors
Index
Contents:

Kurmo Konsa, Tiiu Reimo, Books as informational artefacts
Meelis Friedenthal, Anu Lepp, Kurmo Konsa, Kristjan Adojaan, Early Estonian Printings Database and The Book Damage Atlas
Janet Laidla, The historian and the printing press in early modern Estland and Livland
Anu Lepp, The first year of the Academia Gustaviana print shop as seen through the history of paper
Jürgen Beyer, Pietist tracts in Swedish, printed at Reval/Tallinn in the early eighteenth century: background and bibliographical career

MEELIS FRIEDENTHAL, ANU LEPP (EDS.)

Text and its materialities in early modern Estonia. Special issue of the Estonian Historical Journal (2014, 1 [147]). 136 pp., pb.
Tartu: University of Tartu Press, 2014
List price: €5
Direct link for ordering: http://www.tyk.ee/history-1/00000011406

Contents:

Kurmo Konsa, Tiiu Reimo, Books as informational artefacts
Meelis Friedenthal, Anu Lepp, Kurmo Konsa, Kristjan Adojaan, Early Estonian Printings Database and The Book Damage Atlas
Janet Laidla, The historian and the printing press in early modern Estland and Livland
Anu Lepp, The first year of the Academia Gustaviana print shop as seen through the history of paper
Jürgen Beyer, Pietist tracts in Swedish, printed at Reval/Tallinn in the early eighteenth century: background and bibliographical career

MARJU LAURISTIN, PEETER VIHALEMM (EDS.)

Reading in changing society. (Studies in Reading and Book Culture, vol. 2)
Tartu: University of Tartu Press, 2014
List price: €20
Direct link for ordering: http://www.tyk.ee/politology-and-sociology/0000001142

Contents:

Marju Lauristin, Peeter Vihamem, Introduction
I. Book and reading culture
Ilkka Mäkinen, Reading like monks: Death or survival of the love of reading?
Kurmo Konsa, Edith Hermann, The logic of text and structure of books: changing the functions
II. Books and readers
Marju Lauristin, Reading as lifestyle
Mara Grudule, Ojars Lams, Reader in the clash of cultures: Experience in Eastern Latvia (Latgale cultural region) 2009–2011
III. Reading in the digital age
Juha Herkman, Eliisa Vainikka, ‘New reading’ or communication?
Finnish students as readers in the age of social media
Skans Kersti Nilsson, Reading in a changing society: some impact in the Swedish context
IV. Reading policies
Krista Lepik, Reading policy and public libraries in Estonia – from the perspective of Foucauldian analytics of governmentality
Mats Dolakthah, Anna Hampson Lundh, Reading, democracy and discipline: Reading practices in Swedish primary school classrooms 1967–1969
Asko Tamme, Library lists and directed reading. Some episodes in the history of Estonian libraries
Helin Puksand, The reading preferences of Estonian adolescents
V. Library practices and experiences
Olga Einasto, “The time is out of joint”: a postmodern approach to library
Trinu Seppam, E-books in the Tallinn Central Library: first experiences
Krista Kiss, Exciting reading from the past: archiving and usability of periodicals stored in the National Library of Estonia digital collections
Ilona Smushkina, Elena Sipria-Mironov, Literary Festival Prima Vista – the message of libraries in space and time